

Lisa Suter

I have worked in education for just over 25 years; my specialism is SEND. I am committed to facilitating the best educational opportunities for all children and young people - that focuses on preparation for adulthood.

I fervently believe everyone, with an additional need, should be able to live a good life.